Description

Visiting the Colosseum is a once-in-a-lifetime experience that stays with visitors for a long time after they've returned home. Make the best of your bucket-list day with your own private tour, spending time at the sites that interest you most and finding answers to all your questions.

For three hours your dedicated English-speaking guide will lead you around the three major sights of Ancient Rome – the Colosseum, the Roman Forum and Palatine Hill. As experts in their field, our Rome tour guides are the perfect people to lead your Colosseum adventure, telling you the stories that bring these sites to life. Hear about the Emperors who built, burned and rebuilt the Colosseum, debunk popular myths about the mighty gladiators (many of whom chose this profession!), and learn about some unlikely uses for an amphitheater that once held 82,000 Ancient Romans.

Pulling yourself away from the Colosseum you will climb the Palatine Hill, the most famous of the seven hills of Rome. As you ponder views over Nero's Circus Maximus where chariot races were once held, your guide will tell you the story of Remus and Romulus who, legend has it, were found right here by the she-wolf who raised them as her own. Romulus is often said to be the founder of Rome so what better place to start a trip to the ancient city.

Since access to the underground and third tier levels of the Colosseum is limited to only 25 people at any given time, your exclusive visit to Ancient Rome could be a once-in-a-lifetime experience. With so few other tourists around you will have the time and space to let your imagination run free in this astounding location, rebuilding the Colosseum from the ground up in the calm of the early morning. Our smallest tour group size of only 10 people maximum will also mean that your English-speaking tour guide will be able to cater more specifically to your interests and needs.

If you are looking for a completely different view of the Colosseum and a way to experience Ancient Rome without a loud, hectic tour group, choose this limited edition Semi-Private Colosseum & Ancient Rome Tour.
