Description

Not only will you visit one of the oldest and most popular tavernas in all of Athens, but you will also be initiated into Maria's cooking secrets with easy instructions and plenty of hands on preparation and cooking in this Athens Cooking Lesson & Dinner. The venue is the warm and traditional Klimataria Taverna, owned by Maria and Periklis, famous for years among local Athenians for its delicious home style cooking. Maria will welcome you with a small glass of raki which is a twice distilled drink made from grapes, the perfect ice breaker and a great courage booster for all amateur cooks who are about to be initiated into the fascinating world of Maria's delicious cooking. This hands on cooking course includes 4 starters and a main course. After you have successfully prepared a meal fit for a king under the constant guidance of Maria, you will be able to feast on your delicious creations with a glass of wine.
